

WHAT MAKES OUR ONLINE TESOL CERTIFICATE UNIQUE?

- Learn from a team of researchers and teachers from the Second Language Studies Program and the English Language Center at Michigan State University.
- Practice designing and teaching your own lessons.
- Acquire both the theory and practice you need.
- Receive feedback from experienced ESL instructors.

TESOL CERTIFICATE

*A College of Arts & Letters' Collaboration with the Second Language Studies
Program and the English Language Center*

B230 Wells Hall
East Lansing, MI 48824
(517) 353-0800
tesolcrt@msu.edu

elc.msu.edu

English Language Center
MICHIGAN STATE UNIVERSITY

Second Language Studies
MICHIGAN STATE UNIVERSITY

ONLINE CERTIFICATE

in Teaching English to Speakers of Other Languages (TESOL)

TESOL Certificate

Michigan State University

WHY CHOOSE OUR TESOL CERTIFICATE

Our TESOL Certificate is

- Fully online – take courses from anywhere!
- Open enrollment all-year-long – start at anytime and go at your own pace.
- Available as a full certificate or individual courses.
- Developed according to the TESOL Standards for Short-Term Certificate Programs.

The Michigan State University Online TESOL Certificate is a series of courses providing in-depth understanding of important TESOL concepts.

The Certificate is designed for current and aspiring language teachers, as well as students who want to know more about English language teaching.

The components of the Online Certificate are:

- Foundations of Language Teaching
- Introduction to Second Language Learning
- Pedagogical Grammar
- Practicum
- Final Portfolio

PRICING

Individual courses cost $250 each.

The full certificate costs $900 and includes three content courses, practicum, and final portfolio.

GETTING STARTED

Email tesolcrt@msu.edu for an application.

