Course Description

This course is designed to help you transition to studying at a US University. After this course, you will be able to:

understand and adjust to the expectations of academic culture distinguish between your ideas about academic life and the reality of the American education system communicate with your teachers and peers appropriately understand and fulfill academic assignments apply language learning strategies independently

This online course is divided into five different sections, or modules. These sections correspond to the topics you will learn about:

Section 1: MSU Academic Culture

Section 2: Reading

Section 3: Listening and Speaking

Section 4: Writing

Section 5: MSU Campus and Community

The course is fully online, with both asynchronous and synchronous requirements.
