Course Instructor

Kim Benedicto

Course Facilitator

Dustin De Felice, PhD (also available at defelic5@msu.edu)

Course Overview

For the practicum, individuals will go through a series of online observations, write lesson plans, design activities and materials for instruction, and teach for a minimum of 5 hours in a variety of tasks, activities, and lessons delivered in asynchronous and synchronous forms. The development of materials and the teaching portion will include multiple modalities, as some prospective teachers are more interested in online environments while others are more interested in teaching in a traditional classroom.

Required Textbook

No required textbook. Necessary readings provided throughout the D2L course.

Tech Help

If you are having issues with D2L or want to learn how to do something in it, please follow this series of steps:

- Step 1: Familiarize yourself with D2L by enrolling in this self-paced course: Getting Started with D2L
- Step 2: Visit the D2L Help Page.
- Step 3: Contact D2L Support by using this D2L tech support form

Below is a list of video tutorials explaining some of the basic D2L tools you'll use in this course. The page design in these videos may be different from that of our courses, but the functionality is the same.

Please report any broken links or issues to tesolcrt@msu.edu.

Final Portfolio Assignment [Only Required for Full TESOL Online Certificate Participants]

For the final portfolio assignment, individuals must submit a link to their LMS that includes the following components: lesson plans, handout or other informational page, activity, task, or game, video recording, discussion board, and an assessment.

Along with the link to the LMS, individuals must provide a 250-word reflection on the practicum experience. This reflection can focus on ways to improve their practice in the future. It can also include next steps in creating or modifying more content and finding more ideas and resources for future classrooms.
