

Want to take a deep dive into providing writing feedback?

WRA 495: Working with Multilingual Writers

Description: This Fall 2022 course is designed for undergraduate and graduate students who give feedback on multilingual writers' academic English writing. If you are a writing center consultant, teaching assistant, or work in a writing support context, then this class is for you!

Purpose: This course aims to raise awareness of how people develop written and digital literacy skills in an additional language and how to apply this knowledge when providing feedback on writing with multilingual writers in university contexts.

You do not need to be a multilingual speaker or writer to take this course.

Instructors

Carol Arnold, English Language Center
Monique Yoder, Second Language Studies

Credits hours: 3.0
Tue/Thu 5:00PM – 6:20PM
Go to student.msu.edu to enroll.

Questions? Contact carnold@msu.edu or yodermon@msu.edu