

DR. WU-YI SO SCHOLARSHIP FUND ENGLISH LANGUAGE CENTER

Due Date

November 1st, 2023

Application Information

The Dr. Wu-Yi So Scholarship, presented at the conclusion of fall semester, is awarded to select international students who are provisionally admitted to a degree program at Michigan State University, and enrolled in the English Language Center Intensive English Program (IEP) or English for Academic Purposes (EAP) in the fall and spring semesters of that academic year. Students from China, Taiwan, or Hong Kong will be given preference in the selection process.

For consideration, applicants must:

- be provisionally admitted to a degree granting academic program at Michigan State University.
- be enrolled full-time or part-time in the MSU English Language Center IEP or EAP during spring semester or fall semester of the current year.
- demonstrate strong potential to succeed at MSU.
- be willing to express acceptance and appreciation of the award, if granted, in writing to the family of Dr. Wu-Yi So within six weeks of notification of the award.

Interested students should:

1. review the required online application (click on "Apply Now" link below).
2. request a recommendation from two of your ELC instructors.
3. submit your application by November 1.

Scholarship Awardees will be notified the first week of December.

Note: the scholarship will first be applied toward any unpaid tuition or other funds owed to the university or may be subtracted from any federal financial aid/loan funds. Any remaining funds will be disbursed to you after the scholarship form has been processed via whatever method you have set up in your student account (student.msu.edu). Please seek advice from your Office of Financial Aid counselor if you have any questions before accepting this award.

Apply Now

Contact your ELC
Advisor